THE PRIMARY ELECTION.

The vote in the Primary Election on last Thursday was unusually large, about three thou-and votes having been polled, The complete returns of the election are published el-ewhere, from which it will be seen that only a part of the ticket was nominated, as follows: For House of Representatives, E. B. Murray; for County Commissioners, R. S. Bailey, J. A. Reeves and J. H. Jones; for Probate Judge, T. C. Ligon; for School Commissioner, R. W. Todd. There was Hendrix McLane. In this alternative, no nomination for the Senate, and a second race for that office is ordered between Messrs, John B. Moore and B. F Crayton. There was also a failure to nominate three Representatives, and another race was ordered between Messrs H. R. Vandiver, H. G. Scudday, A. T. Broyles, J. Belton Watson, R. P. Clinkscales and W. S. Pickens, Col. M. P. Tribble was recommended for County Treasurer, and Mr. T. J. Webb for County Auditor, The County Executive Committee fixed upon Thursday, the 12th day of October, for the second election, with a proviso that if there shall be a failure to nominate on that day the third election shall be held on Thursday, the 19th day of October.

The rules governing the next election are the same as those heretofore adopted, except that the managers are required to keep a tally list of the number of persons voting for House of Representatives, and report the same to the Executive Committee. They are also required to bring rule in South Carolina. Our people up all of the ballots cast in the election by 11 o'clock on Friday following the election. Where this is not done, the Committee will ascertain the number of votes cast by adding the number of votes for all the candidates for Representatives, and dividing the same by three.

The County Executive Committee will meet at ten o'clock a. m. on Friday, the 13th of October, to receive and tabulate the returns from the election.

The canvass which has just passed has been entirely barmonious and pleasant: no issues were made upon the stump, and very few were raised privately upon the candidates. The canvass was throughout dull, and the meetings poorly attended. With the large number of candidates it is not strange that the vote should have been greatly scattered, and that only a partial ticket was nominated, The ensuing race promises to be more interesting than the one which has just

AN EXPLANATION.

After the County Executive Committo: had declared the result of the primary election for members of the House of Representatives last week, some gentlemen in Anderson ascertained, as they thought, an error in the count by which Capt. H. R. Vandiver would also have been elected. They reached their conclusion by adding together the sum of all the votes cast for each candidate for Representatives, and dividing this sum by four, which would give the number of by four, which would give the number of men voting in the late election for Representatives as 2908, of which number Capt. Vandiver has a majority, but when the single ballots and ballots for only two or three members are counted, it increases the number of persons voting in the election to a larger number. of which Capt. Vandiver did not have a majority. In view of this complication and difference of opinion Mr. Murray called the County Executive Committee together for Monday morning, liance, and that the national administrabut failing to get a quorum, the Committee did not meet until Monday afternoon. In the mean time Capt. Vandiver came to Anderson, and for the first time heard of the discussion on his way to the city, as neither he nor any of his immediate friends had any agency in | South Carolina. Therefore all who vote starting the discussion. When the Com- the Greenback ticket will be veting the mittee met Capt. Vandiver appeared before it, and stated that he desired to say to the Committee, in advance of any ligent colored men of this State, afford action they might take on the question, to vote the same ticket which E. W. M. that he could not consent under any circumstances to accept an office where there was the slightest doubt as to his election. He preferred to run the race over and let the people of Anderson County say in an unmistakable manner whether they desired his services or not. Therefore he declined to accept the position on the last vote, and was still a candidate before the Democracy of Anderson County for the position. The question therefore being disposed of, the Committee took no action upon it, and the election stands as declared by the Committee. Capt. Vandiver's attitude in this matter has been that of a true Democrat and a patriot. He is unwil-Democrat and a patriot. He is unwilling to accept a nomination that would give rise to controversy, and prefers to trust the justice and judgment of the voters of his party.

each man should vote according to his honest convictions, and hence should choose between the ticket headed by Hugh S. Thompson and that led by J. but one decision can be reached by any man with self respect. There is no comparison between the men, and none between their principles. Col. Thompson is a gentleman of ability, integrity and patriotism; McLane is an office seeking, self asserting demagogue, with no ability and with the most infamous political affiliations. The true men of Carolina will see to it in November that he shall never be Covernor of South Carolina by the votes of the people of this State.

The Democratic party in South Carolina is the only party which has ever given our State peace and prosperity. It has saved our taxpayers more than a million dollars each year since it came into power in 1876, and yet there are men green (?) enough to think our people will turn this party out to put in one which is composed of ten negroes and one white man. Such a result would be the immediate restoration of Republican will never consent to such a result, Every true man in South Carolina will go to the polls in November if he can possibly get there, to vote for the Democratic party and good government. Our success is already assured if our people will only do this.

The Greenbackers who were expected to have had a meeting in Anderson on the 4th inst, after having arranged with the Democrats for a joint discussion, quietly withdrew their appointment and failed to attend the meeting. Hence there was no political meeting, and our people were deprived of the honor (?) of taving the would-be, but preposterous (dovernor, McLane, with us. Anderson feels greatly humbled that so distinguished an orator (?) and statesman (?) the cowd took hold of Carter and dragged him off the stand, and he would have treated us in such a slight manner. We want to see McLane and hear him speak, in order that we may ahow our colored people, some of whom are intelligent men, what a miscrable to the condition of the stand to the proposterous tried to speak, but the negroes crowded so upon the stand that the stand broke down. Thereby being greatly infuriated the crowd took hold of Carter and dragged him off the stand, and he would have been killed had it not been for Albert Chinton and Ed. Saddler and others.

The word came up-town that Carter had been shot. About this time a drunken negro was misbehaving on Main street and the town auarce of a ticket these Greenbackers ask hem to vote for. Seeing is believing, and our people will never appreciate the absolute perfection of the Greenback farce until they see McLane and hear a procession of about two hundred, headed by William Crockett. Crockett reined up and, without inquiring what was the matter commenced cursing a struggle the sheriff without hunting him had him carried to jail.

Then the negroes hearing of this sent a procession of about two hundred, headed by William Crockett. Crockett reined up and, without inquiring what was the

That is not, of course, any reason why any voter in North Carolina should support the coalition, but it is a good reason why the weight of President Arthur's name should not be thrown into the scale against it."

This shows that the Republicans North and the Greenbackers and Independents in the South are in close altion is helping the hungry office seekers in the South, in order by a ruse, to capture these States which the straight-out Republicans cannot hope to do. One of the most sucred duties which is devolved upon the citizen in a republican government, is the obligation to vote for good men to govern his country. This obligation is second only to the service of his God. The prosperity of his country, the peace and security of his family and of his community, and all the true interests of his State, depend upon the irtelligent and honest exercise of the valuable right of suffrage. A pointical meeting here yesterday was addressed by Col. Cash. About the close of the meeting a difficulty arose at the stand between a white Democrat and a colored man, which resulted in the former being wounded in the head by a blow with a stick or stone. At this time two or three pistol shots were fired near the stand, but no one was hurt. Soon after this a large procession of colored persons on horseback came upon the streets. is over. The above statement is made upon information of a reliable person, and is believed to be substantially correct. Later. LANCASTER, Sept. 28.
The riot of yesterday originated thus:
Cash, after a very turbulent and noisy procession through the streets, was addressing a crowd of about 700 negroes. Mr. Carter, editor of the Ledger, had taken his position on the stand as reporter for his paper, and Cash was profuse in his abuse of the Legislature and charged that the planters and formers were cheating he negroes out of their earnings.

Four or five negroes, Crockett included, were killed and sevoral wounded.

Everything was quiet last night and all to-day, but conflicting rumors are re-ported that the negroes are threatening to renew the trouble. The whites are on the alert and will in prudence keep down trouble. The whites are united.

Columbia, September 28.—The Greenbackers held a mass meeting at Lancaster yesterday which resulted in a serious riot and the loss of several lives. Governor Hagood received a dispatch last night from the Hon. Giles J. Patterson, of Chester, as follows: "Rlot in Lancaster. Three persons killed. Call made on Chester for help. Please telegraph at once to Capt. John B. McFadden to go with Lee Light Infantry to their aid." A later dispatch was received from Mr. Patterson, saying that the necessity for help had passed. had passed.

Telegrams received to-day state that while the meeting was in progress a difficulty occurred at the stand between a white man and a negro, in which the white man was struck a fearful blow on the beat. white man was struck a tearful blow on the head. Several shots were fired, but no one was injured by the discharge of firearms. Afterwards a large number of negroes mounted on horses and armed with pistols rode through the streets of Lancaster. A negro named Crockett with a pistol buckled around him headed the a piscol bucklet around him headed the procession, and on passing a street corner where a white man was standing, said "There is the d—d rascal who did the firing." The white man told him that he lied, whereupon Crockett pulled out his pistol and fired at the white man, the hall pistol and fired at the white man, the hall narrowly missing his head and passing through the coat of another white man who was standing by. Three or four shots were fired at Crockett, who fell from his horse dead. The firing then became general, and three more negroes were killed and six wounded. The negroes then rode into another part of the town and halted. Serious fears were entertained that they would renew the attown and halted. Serious fears were en-tertained that they would renew the at-tack, and to provent further bloodshed the Intendant of Lancaster sent to Ches-ter for aid. The disturbance was, how-ever, quieted down without the use of the military. It is not known whether there were any casualties among the whites. So far as known here Col. E. B. C. Cash was the only speak. present at the meeting.

An Unusual Proceeding in a South Caro-lina Court,

The Laurensville Headd gives the fol-lowing particulars of the interesting breach of promise case tried at Laurens last week in which Miss Belle Jones was

Judge Wallace overruled the demurrer,

The negroes were drinking at the stand and were wrought up to a high pitch. Cash, it is said, would turn around to Carter and make repeated remarks that he, although he would not vote for him, was his sympathizer. Carter then asked Cash to allow him to reply. Cash said certainly, and remarked that he should have a respectful hearing. Carter attempted to reply but the negroes would not hear him. Cash then asked them to be quiet, but it did no good, and Carter and the negroes getting into a wrangle, Cash left the stand and went direct to his room at the hotel. The negrees were drinking and they had a jug of whiskey near the stand.
